Hip! Hip! Hooray! Please challenge yourself to read a book each day.

I hope you have a wonderful summer, but it is very important to keep our brains learning while we are away. Here is your first homework assignment for first grade:

Step 1: Read at least 5 books over the summer with a grown-up. Please write down their title and author (I love getting ideas for new books to add to our classroom library!):

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

Step 2: Choose one of the books you read and draw me your favorite part of the story. Please include your name, and the book's title and author. This will be used as part of our first hallway classroom display.

I look forward to hearing about all of your reading adventures in September!!!

Your teacher,
